دُرْجَاتُ الْبَرَاءَةِ

This image shows a handwriting practice sheet for Persian characters. The page is divided into four horizontal rows by light blue grid lines. Each row contains several instances of a specific character, with some being solid black and others having a dotted or dashed outline for tracing. The characters are as follows:

- Row 1: راً (Ra with a dot over the top)
- Row 2: د (D)
- Row 4: د (D)

Below the rows, there are three columns of words written in a larger, bold font:

- First column: مدارز (Madarz)
- Second column: مراد (Morad)
- Third column: رماد (Rmad)

Each word is repeated twice in the column.
