a. is an elderly woman.

“She was eighty-seven” (l.9)

b. is handicapped.

“in her wheel chair” (l.7)

“paralyzed” (l.10)

c. is of modest financial means.

d. has some reason to feel lonely.

“she never came to visit her” (l.12)

e. has two main hobbies.

“she knitted and read” (l.9)

Accepter ligne 7

5 points

2. Read from line 13 to the end

a. What does Mrs Beecham give David? (Nature, origin and colour)

She gives him a pinkbedjacket that she knitted herself.

3 points

b. Who is the gift really meant for?

This gift is meant for David’s mother.

1 point

3. Read the whole text again

a. How does David react on seeing the gift from Mrs Beecham? (20 words)

He is so surprised that he “leaped up nervously” (l.18/19). He also feels embarrassed and awkward, but he remains polite.

4 points

Seuls les candidats de la série L (LVA inclus) traiteront la question 3 b.

b. How can you explain this reaction? (20 words)

First, he had already been given one by Mrs Beecham, so he thought it was useless. He also felt obliged to give her a present in return, and he wondered what he could find to please her. Besides, he may have found the gift both ugly and repulsive.

4 points

Candidats de la série L LVA uniquement

4. a. What are Mrs Beecham's feelings for David? (30 words)

It is clear that Mrs Beecham feels great affection for David because she almost blushes with pleasure when he says he likes her presents.

6 points

b. Give the reasons why she feels that way. (30 words)

David seems to be the only person who listens to her and makes her feel useful. David may even be considered a substitute son for Mrs Beecham.

8 points

5. For each sentence write the appropriate subject from the following list.

Michelle Julien – Ryan – Shelley Walta – Todd Pliss

- a. Todd Pliss
- b. Michelle Julien
- c. Shelley Walta
- d. Shelley Walta
- e. Ryan
- f. Michelle Julien

6 points

6. a. Quote four examples showing the disadvantages of young baby sitters.

SUGGESTIONS :

- They leave the kid unsupervised when they watch TV or are on the phone.(l. 16-18)
- They let children pour detergent everywhere. (l.20)
- Sometimes, they don't show up. (l.22)
- They fall asleep. (l.22)
- They locked the kids out. (l.22-23)

4 points

- b. According to Pliss, why are grandmas better qualified to look after a child? (20 words)

They are so much more experienced and reliable because they have raised a family. The older, the wiser.

4 points

Candidats de la série L LVA uniquement

7. What were Pliss's motivations when he created his agency? (30 words)

Pliss first wanted to help unemployed women as well as demanding parents of young children but it is obvious that he also intended to do business and to use this "opportunity" to make money.

6 points

Documents A et B

8. What are the reasons why Mrs Beecham and Mrs Walta need to feel useful?
(50 words)

They refuse to be left aside. They want to play a role in society. Mrs Beecham knits for her neighbours and friends, and probably expects some kind of gratefulness. As for Mrs Walta, she is glad to be of service for people who need her, even though it is also a way of earning a living.

9 points

II - EXPRESSION

Les candidats des séries S et ES traiteront UN sujet au choix en 150 mots minimum.
